Mission: To break the destructive cycle of juvenile crime, through Christ-centered Intervention

Vision: To see youth flourish, free from a life of crime.

3 Ways JIFF Serves Urban Youth Ages 12-21

Juvenile Case Mentoring: Designed to give court-referred youth, ages 12-18 the skills, support, and direction necessary to break the destructive cycle of criminal behavior becoming thoughtful and productive citizens.

JIFF Learn to Earn:

JIFF's Learn to Earn (LTE) program systematically addresses the high level of unemployed, unskilled, undereducated, Out-of-School youth and young adults ages 16-21, especially young offenders. JIFF offers two different for Learn to Earn participants: Culinary Arts Training & Career Readiness and GED & Career Readiness

The Ambassadors Program: Is an advance leadership/discipleship training program available only to JIFF Alumni who are committed to this mission: To take back our communities, empower our peers, and serve as Ambassadors to the world. The Ambassador's program utilizes community service projects, studies in leadership, the development of strong interpersonal skills, and numerous public speaking opportunities to advance the leadership qualities and potential of each participant.
